AStA

General Student Committee

The AStA represents the students of TH Bingen in academic, economic, and social matters. It consists of students who volunteer alongside their studies.

The AStA is divided into departments covering topics such as:

- Social issues
- Sports
- International affairs
- Public relations
- Environment & culture
- Campus activities & fun
- Student initiatives
- Integration of international students

The AStA is not an exclusive club – everyone is welcome to join and contribute!

StuPa

Student Parliament

The Student Parliament is the official legal representation of all students at TH Bingen. It discusses current student and university politics, passes resolutions, and implements them via the AStA.

Main responsibilities:

- Decisions on fundamental student matters
- Passing and controlling the budget
- Electing, discharging, and monitoring AStA members
- Setting student contributions
- Amending the statutes of the student body

The City of Bingen

High-Tech Meets Rhine Romanticism

Bingen is both the gateway to the UNESCO World Heritage “Upper Middle Rhine Valley” and the regions Rheinhessen, Nahe, and Rheingau.

Advantages of Bingen:

- Great transport connections (Mainz, Wiesbaden, Frankfurt close by)
- Frankfurt Airport nearby
- High quality of life in a city of ~25,000 inhabitants
- Cultural highlights (e.g. Hildegard von Bingen sites)
- Castle Klopp & the Rhine shape the cityscape
- Nature, hiking, cycling, and wine festivals in the surrounding area
